

Media Ownership Policy Reexamination

In 2001, the FCC began rulemaking proceedings on two of its broadcast ownership rules - Not in the best interest of humanity. Leads to censorship and misinformation and public stupidity.